HAVAS

Madrid, March 9—It is stated that the International Labour Conference originated by the Emperor of Germany will meet in Madrid instead of Berlin, in order that certain Powers who might object to send delegates to the Capital of Germany may be represented.

Vienna, March 9—The Emperor has declined to accept Tisza's resignation which has consequently been withdrawn,

Rome, March 10—Biancheri, President of the Chamber of Deputies, has presented his resignation in consequence of a disagreement with the Prime Minister, Crispi.

Lisbon, March 10—The French Minister. M. Billot, has been definitely appointed Ambassador to Rome and started today for his new charge.

Rio de Janeiro, March 10—The "Portugal" arrived last night and Bocayuva disembarked at 6 this morning. He was received by the Ministers and a large number of societies and corporations, his welcome being very enthusiastic.

GALVESTON.

St. Petersburg, March 8th—The number of Cossack troops has been recently very largely increased.

Paris, March 10th—The Engineers' Committee has returned from Panama with a most unfavorable report; Lesseps himself has had to confess that the Canal scheme is a complete and disastrous failure.

London, March 10—All parties believe that Parliament will be dissolved during the coming summer, as the debate on the report of the Parnell Commission will be very prejudicial to the Government.

It is said that the Russian Head of the Police has informed the Czar of a letter received by him, containing a warning that on the 13th of March an attempt will be certainly made on the lives of the Czar, Czarina and Czarewitch.

It is stated by Nihilists in London, Berlin and Paris that this date, the anniversary of the death of Alexander the second, will be commemorated by an attempt to assassinate the Czar.

MONTEVIDEO

Special Telegram.

March 19th.

The races yesterday at the new Hippodrome were fairly attended, but the sport was not brilliant; the winners were Modista, Caudillo, Politica, Fidalga and Aventurero; good dividends were paid.

The Battle of Flowers yesterday was successful, but the evening was rather cold.

The Bolsa is still very depressed and little business was done to-day; Obras closed at 41½ for cash, and 38½ for tomorrow. National Bank 114.

The wheat market was well sustained.

At the important land auctions yesterday buyers were plentiful and prices well sustained.

The news of the rising premium at Buenos Aires caused a bad impression here.

No ministerial decree has as yet been published, but it is expected hourly.

THE LA PLATA PORT LANDS.

After the dismal failure of the auction of the Madero Port lands, it was no wonder that a similar fate befell the sale of La Plata Port lands last Sunday. This dual failure is a most excellent lesson, as it proves to satisfaction how enormously some interested parties have over-rated the value of lands adjoining port-works. A year ago, those very lands would have fetched at auction from 100 to 150 dollars per square yard; syndicates would have been formed by the dozen to buy up the lands whole sale; agents of foreign bankers and capitalists would have besieged the ministerial parlours to negotiate mammoth loans on pledge of the lands. All that, viewed in to-day's light, implies that for some considerable time we were living in a fool's paradise.

The lands that once were a bone of contention, that once were supposed to be worth scores of millions, that led to the watering of stocks of companies blessed with a fraction of that valuable property, those lands are unsaleable to-day. All the latent millions have failed to come to the surface and they lie buried with the hopes of those who based their fortune on the myth. The judgment of the market has changed in the most astonishing manner in a very short time, and to-day we are coming to the conclusion that the lands near the docks may be very suitable for sheds, deposits, shipping-offices, gin palaces pawn-shops, etc., but their value cannot compare with sites in the central or fashionable streets. Rich men can pay any price for sites in the Avenida Alvear; business will cling to the central streets and pay rents proportional to profits, but as in Havre or Antwerp the port vicinity will not warrant any great value for sites within hail of the decks of vessels. So we may bid good-bye to all hope of seeing for many years to come the port lands worth $150 per square yard, unless the gold premium goes to 500. The two auctions are a bitter experience and tell a sad tale of inflation and speculation in their inevitable process of fizzling. Both the National and La Plata Governments, now that they are deserted by the local market, might try to sell the port lands in Europe and send special commissioners to London and Paris for the purpose.

THE PALERMO EXHIBITION.

The majority of people are not aware that on the 20th of April a grand international exhibition of Cattle and Farming products will be inaugurated in the Palermo Park. The utter apathy with which the public appear to view the approaching competition may be traced to the sorry state of affairs in the market. What with a rising gold premium soaring in dangerous vicinity to 200 o/o, the stoppage of business in general, and the "hard-upness" in every walk of life, the people are in no humor to get lively over exhibitions. Still the works of this International Show are progressing fast, and we hear that the display of cattle will be exceptionally good.

One of the chief factors of the success of the Exhibition must be the valuable assistance of the Sala de Comercio of the Once de Setiembre, and that assistance has been offered and accepted. Mr. Charles Lix-Klett, just back from Paris, has taken the matter in hand and, as representative of the Sala del Once, has made all the preliminary arrangements with the Sociedad Rural to secure for the exhibits of the Sala de Comercio plenty of space and good position. At a very short notice, Mr. Lix-Klett has collected no fewer than two hundred and fifty exhibits of farming products and over six hundred fleeces of wool. The Sala de Comercio is determined to make as great a show in Palermo as in Paris. At all events the arrangements are in the very best hands, and no money will be spared to render the special section of the Once museum conspicuous.

At a meeting of the Sociedad Rural yesterday the following appointments were made: Mr. Lix-Klett was named Comisario General of the Exhibition. Messrs. Nelson, Pajes, and Girola, who figured in the Argentine Section of the Paris Exhibition, were appointed sub-comisarios. The arrangements, it will be seen, are intrusted to an experienced personnel.

CURE FOR THE CRISIS

B. Ayres, March 10th.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Sir,

A few spare moments—there are many now—prompt me, an importer, to place my views before you in the hope they may assist in some slight degree the Government out of the "pantano" they have fallen into through their own grievous errors. Surely there are true Argentines living willing and capable of taking up the reigns of power with honesty and some love of country, for a continuation of the present situation, unless remedial measures are employed immediately, can only lead to its becoming intensified. I urge the following:—

1. Economy—Reduce expenditure by at least one million paper dollars per month, even though this should necessitate the stoppage of many public works. Lay up most of the Fleet in some convenient port or ports, where a few men in each ironclad could look after preservation of machinery, etc. For coast-guard service the small cruisers would be sufficient.
2. Name a Committee composed of five good and true men; this Committee to comprise two of the most prominent oppositionists to the Government, to receive one million of paper dollars which shall be burnt publicly monthly on a platform in the Plaza Victoria. An escribano to be present to draw up an "Acta" and publish it in all the leading papers. The notes to be burnt to be those of the National Bank, and until the total issue of legal paper money is reduced to 100 millions.
3. Stop the issue of all Cedulas, both National and Provincial.
4. Stop the action of the Free Banking Law at 100 millions of paper dollars, or say at $25 m/n per head of the total population of the Republic. Fresh emissions of paper money can only be disastrous in their effect and all idea of new emissions as a remedial measure should be abandoned.
5. Replace the gold which was lying as guarantee of the emissions of the Free Banks by means of realizing available assets to the extent of 30 to 40 millions gold dollars, and once this amount is deposited it should not be touched for any purpose whatever, its object being solely to guarantee the paper money issued.

The above measures would certainly, in my opinion, tend to uniform the value of the paper dollar and gradually restore confidence, of which we stand so much in need.

I am, Sir,
Yours faithfully,
An Importer.

ARGENTINE RAILWAYS.

Six years ago there were eleven railways in the Argentine Republic, with an aggregate length of 2290 miles and with a capital of £15,753,000. To-day there are, or shortly will be, twenty-five railways, with a total of length of over nine thousand miles, in which English capital has been, or shortly will be, invested to the extent of upwards of eighty seven millions sterling. This is exclusive of some five hundred miles of narrow-gauge railway now being worked and constructed by a French company in the province of Santa Fé, of which particulars are not available. It is also exclusive of all the railways in embryo for which concessions have been granted by the National and Provincial Governments—and their name is legion—some of which are, no doubt, being prepared for the English investor. Such a rapid absorption of English money by railway enterprise in one foreign country in so short a time is startling enough, and if continued at the same rate for a few more years the result would be absolutely staggering. As it is, however, the figures afford much food for contemplation, for to the eighty-seven millions locked up in railways we must add a huge sum invested in Government and municipal loans, Cedulas, and commercial and other enterprises in the Argentine Republic. No doubt some new countries develop very rapidly, and very few, perhaps, have advanced by such leaps and bounds as the Argentine Republic. This has been, of course, largely due to the construction of railways, which have opened up and developed the natural resources of the country. It is a question, however, whether railway development is not now being overdone.

The following table gives the particulars of the various lines:—

Our list includes all the lines, now working and under construction, for which English capital has been or will be found. They consist of 2,947 miles of 4ft 8½ in. gauge, and 6,617 miles of 5ft 6 in. gauge. It will be seen that in the list of unguaranteed companies the commitments for lines under construction are included, so far as they are known at present. All these are being rapidly constructed, and are expected to be completed in two or three years. The list of guaranteed companies, in like manner, includes some further capital that has yet to be provided in order to complete the lines under construction.

In the first list, which contains ten companies, only four have so far paid any dividends out of earnings, and they owe their exceptional prosperity to the fact that they serve the best traffic districts containing large commercial centres. Of the other six only two are yet completed—the Central Cordova and the North-West Argentine—neither of which publishes official returns; but from other sources of information it is understood that their traffics are very small, and that they are not yet earning their debenture interest. The results of these, and of the other lines, when completed, will be interesting, and perhaps surprising, to the shareholders.

The fifteen guaranteed lines comprise eight that are completed and two partly completed. Of these it is doubtful if more than three—the northern section of the Central Cordoba, the East Argentine, and the Western of Buenos Ayres—earned last year more than their working expenses. The outlook is, therefore, not very promising for the shareholders, and still less so for the Government, especially as the guarantees have to be paid in gold, and the currency of the country is at an enormous discount. There is, therefore, great need for discrimination on the part of investors in Argentine guaranteed railway securities so long as the traffic receipts are insufficient to meet the working expenses, and, as in the case of the East Argentine, when the Government can, by its own arbitrary act, without proper trial, suspend the guarantee.

Enough, we think, has been said to show that the whole subject of Argentine railway companies and the nature of their securities requires careful watching. The interests at stake are, as we have shown, gigantic, while in some directions the possibilities of grave danger exist. It is, therefore, to be hoped that the great houses that have made, and are still making, enormous profits out of financing contractors and placing Argentine railway loans in this market, will take some trouble to ascertain the prospects of traffic on the line to be made before they saddle the English investors with stocks that may turn out to be worthless.—Financial News.

MEMS FROM LONDON.

London, Feb. 7th.

What has become of Prince Beatrice? Did he strike, and was he threatened? The other day, says Mrs. Crawford, in Truth, I met a relative of his sister-in-law, the Countess Alexander von Hartenau, who told me that "the poor fellow's lot is not to be envied." The Queen, on whose favor he depends, being now seventy, few about the Court take the trouble to be civil to him. Military men do not at all relish being told off to "attend" this curious royal highness. Though the Queen is exacting of respect for him, she treats him herself with curt dryness, and she expects him to be always hanging about the Princess Beatrice, who since her marriage keeps as close to her Majesty as her shadow, and is constantly getting up entertainments for her royal mother's delectation, which Prince B. thinks awful bores.

He would infinitely prefer a friendly pipe and flagon of beer and war of words at a "Kneipe," to her "tableaux vivants," private theatricals and concerts. The concerts are the most doleful things imaginable. The Princess performs on the piano, and gets herself accompanied by other instruments. She is particularly fond of the violin, and has always some first-rate violinist to play with her. Prince B. used to turn the leaves of her music book when they were freshly married, but he has since allowed a lady or gentleman in waiting to do that honorable service, and sits near the musicians seeming to listen, but more often than not in a brown study. If it were not for the pleasures of memory these concerts would be unendurable.

The Queen, who loves music, is nearly always present, and sits by herself, with a dusky personal attendant standing behind her chair. She, too, is wrapped up, and no doubt also passing mentally in review her bygone pleasures. Whenever she makes a sign to Prince B., he is on his feet in an instant.

As one of the physicians in ordinary to the Queen, the late Sir William Gull was paid a retaining fee of £200 per annum. The other physicians in ordinary, Sir William Jenner, Sir Edward Sieveking, and Dr. Reid are in receipt of a similar stipend. The vacancy caused by the death of Sir W. Gull will probably be filled by one of the three physicians extraordinary, who are Dr. R. D. Powell, Dr. George Johnson, and Dr. Quain. The medical department of the Royal Household is quite an extensive establishment.

Besides the names already given, there are two sergeant surgeons (Sir James Paget and Sir Prescott Hewett, entitled each to £280 per annum), three surgeons extraordinary (Dr. Erichsen, Sir Joseph Lister, and Sir William Savory), a physician to the household (Dr. Reynolds, salary £200), a surgeon to the household (Sir Spencer Wells, £300), a surgeon apothecary (Dr. Laking, £1000), three "surgeons and apothecaries in ordinary to the household at Windsor," three "surgeons and apothecaries at Osborne," a "surgeon oculist," a "surgeon dentist," a "dentist to the household," and two "chemists and druggists."

A few years ago there were nine physicians holding the rank of baronet, but that honor falls to the lot of medical men only in their maturer years. Seven of the nine have passed away, and two only remain, namely Sir William Jenner and Sir Andrew Clark.

Mr. Jennings fires off another shot out of his own peculiar private arsenal this morning. The Herald wants a root-and-branch Admiralty reform, and comforts the Government with a hint that an opportunity will be sought of airing the subject next Session. Some of the points noted down for reform are striking enough—the huge perquisites and pensions of the junior lords, the eight under-strappers with £16,445 a year, the secretary department with its £21,828 in salaries and its outrageous £17,000 a year in pensions; the five accountants-general on £5,700 a year, and so on. If Mr. Jennings will get his knife into some of these iniquities, we only wish more power to his arm.

Mr. G. A. Sala has declined the editorship of the Sunday Times.

Mr. Jennings, M. P., has reorganised the staff of the New York Herald, and placed its shaky base on a firmer foundation, so now he retires from the head of the staff. Though he may contribute to its pages, he will not be chief editor of the paper.

The latest story of Mr. Spurgeon.—As told in the Memorial Hall, on the authority of a member of the London County Council, it runs as follows:—A gentleman who had amassed a big fortune in the erection of jerry-built villas and "eligible family residences", on retiring from business built for himself a splendid mansion in a suburban district, and being dubious as to a fitting name for it, wrote to Mr. Spurgeon for his advice. When the answer came it was to the effect that, after very careful consideration, Mr. Spurgeon could think of no other name than Dun robin.

Rome, Feb. 6th.

Cardinal Pecci, the Pope's brother, is dying from an attack of influenza. The Pope, on being told, was very much shocked, and remarked that the Cardinal was only two years older than he. The Cardinal is just eighty-three.

A French paper announces that the Brazilian man-of-war Almirante Barosso will shortly arrive at Trieste, flying the new Republican ensign. The Austrian Government is said to have given orders that on the arrival of the vessel no salutes are to be fired and that the customary interchange of official visits is not to take place.

TACIT NATURALIZATION

Were it not that many of the consequences are overlooked by foreigners residing here, who are disinclined to trouble themselves about the decree of tacit naturalization for all residents on the 15th of November last, and were it not that many Englishmen are mistaken in the supposition that they can not lose their nationality, no matter what the provisional government may decree, we should certainly let the question rest without further comment. We have frankly stated our belief that, notwithstanding the bad policy and injustice connected with this decree, it is much better for a foreigner who does not wish to accept its provisions, to promptly make use of the alternative given, that of signing the register provided for that purpose.

Although we are still convinced that Brazil can not take away any man's citizenship without his consent, which opinion can be sustained by authoritative decisions by members of the United States government, still there are possibilities of complications which no man has a right to ignore. If he refuses to comply with the alternative of registration, the Brazilian government will certainly consider him a Brazilian citizen, and as subject to all the duties and obligations of that citizenship. And in case of any act against his person or property, for which he may appeal to his native country for protection, the Brazilian government will assuredly deny all right of interference on the ground that he tacitly and voluntarily accepted that citizenship. Even were his own country disposed to contest this assumption, he would be unable to obtain redress for so long a time that he would practically derive very little advantage from it. In view of this possibility, and of the many questions of inheritance, personal rights, proofs of nationality, etc., etc., which travellers or residents abroad are continually encountering, it is certainly best that some decisive step should be taken to comply with the law. If it is decided to accept Brazilian citizenship, then there is nothing more to be said; if, however, there is no such intention, then to avoid future complications the register at the municipal offices should be signed.

As to the question of British citizenship, we have been favored with the following legal opinion from London which expressly declares that a British subject will forfeit his citizenship if he does not comply with the provisions of this degree. We know that there are many who believe that they cannot lose this citizenship, no matter what happens; this opinion, and the quotation from the statutes which it contains, will therefore be of timely service to them. The opinion is as follows:

"Down to the year 1870 England denied the right of her subjects to expatriate themselves. An Englishman carried his national character with him wherever he went, and was always liable to be treated as a subject on his return.

"This state of things was changed by 'The Naturalization Act, 1870', (33 Victoria, c. 14.) By section 6 of that Act it is enacted that:

> Any British subject who has at any time before, or may at any time after the passing of this Act, when in any foreign state and not under any disability, voluntarily become naturalized in such state, shall from and after the time of his so having become naturalized in such foreign state be deemed to have ceased to be a British subject and be regarded as an alien.

"The effect of neglecting to make the declaration required by Art. I of the Decree of the 15th December will certainly be that the person so neglecting will voluntarily become a naturalized subject of Brazil and thus, in the eye of English law, an alien with none of the rights of a British subject.

"Such a statutory alien may be subsequently re admitted to British nationality, but only upon the same terms as a natural alien can obtain a certificate of naturalization. The granting of a certificate of re-admission is discretionary, but it will usually be granted by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State upon evidence that certain conditions have been fulfilled. The principal conditions are that the applicant has within a limited time before making the application (such time to be fixed by the Secretary of State) resided in the United Kingdom, for a term of not less than five years, and intends, when re admitted, either to reside in the United Kingdom, or in some (colony) under the Crown [see sections 7 and 8 of the Act]."

THE BATEMAN LEGACY.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

March 7th

Dear Sir,—

The whole population of dear and dirty Buenos Ayres can again testify to the inutility of the storm water conduits of this city after a few hours' rain.

Yesterday, after 2 hours' rain the storm water was running all over the side-walks in the principal street, viz., Calle Florida. Also all the filthy, black, dirty water was seen boiling (as it were) out of the house drains: the drains of some being choked, the water rose as a fountain, some 15 inches high. These stoppages are due to the lowering of the "veredas," instead of lowering the streets. The water rushed along at 10 miles per hour (in fact "aguas corrientes"). It was from 30 to 40 centimetres deep. From Calle Victoria it rushed past all the notoriously useless sumpts until reaching Calle Paraguay, where it joined its companion river; turning here, it took its natural course into the Rio de la Plata, or I should have said into the Darsena del Sud (when finished); being "aguas corrientes" no doubt it will tend to sweeten the water there.

Being in the tram, and, for a wonder, drawn by a pair of very fair horses, we managed to get past Calle Paraguay which was one entire sheet of water as far as could be seen.

The once famous foot bridges were gone and no one could cross from one side to the other without going into it up to his knees. Arriving all right at Centro America, except for some rain dropping down my neck from a gent's umbrella hoisted in the tram, because it, like the streets, had "aguas corrientes" on the brain and ran through the roof, etc. I came to a halt and proceeded half a square before coming to Calle Ecuador, where the passage was again stopped for pedestrians unless they chose to wade through the "aguas corrientes" up to their waist: the stream was here about 60 c. deep and was running 8 to 9 miles per hour. The whole of Calle Ecuador, for many squares, was a complete river, and here it is we see another useless attempt at engineering, because it is not well to do anything well at first in Buenos Ayres. If half done it shows your neighbor how to finish it and consequently employs more labor and costs more than double. Now, here we are in this street that is forty feet above the Rio de la Plata, and underneath this very street there is a storm water conduit some feet in diameter, and yet with this feat of engineering 60c. of water runs over the whole street. Not five months ago this useless collector of filth was emptied by more than twenty men working some months, when they brought up and emptied the filth upon the streets (several hundred cartloads); and now the greater portion of this same rubbish has been again washed into the same storm water conduit, and consequently, being nearly full of this hard sodden material, there is little or no passage for water below and, therefore, it must naturally run on the street. Now, Mr. Editor, what is the reason of this? I will tell you: the same that applies to all this Bateman Legacy business,—there is not sufficient fall to any of his drains. No one can be found that will clear itself. Another matter of importance is this. If ever this sanitary business is intended to work properly, about which there can scarcely be two opinions, that it will not, why do not the engineers commence at the right end of the drain? All these long sounding names, "cloacas domicilarias," are commenced at the wrong end: by the time they have laid down the connecting pipes at Boca and Barracas and upwards, all those at the north end will be full of mud washed in from the "zanjas." I could be pretty certain these will never work. If they ever intend to finish, let them take the advice of their master, a gentleman of known ability, namely, the late John F. Bateman, and consult his report, page 16; he says (truly), "In carrying out the drainage and sewerage works they should in all cases be commenced at the lowest points and be gradually carried upwards, house drains being attached as the works proceed.' I need only say that this remark is perfectly true, and should be insisted upon by any man professing to call himself an engineer: and that Government should see that this is done at once, and stop the waste of time and money on all drains at the north end. If these drains were begun at the lowes (and not the highest) end, every house could be at one and the same time connected, and the sewage matter would be passed direct into the connecting sewer, and from thence into the main sewer. Nearly every house up to the present will have to be opened out again on the "vereda", and their foundations undermined and their walls weakened by the stupid system of ventilating the sewers at the private owners' expense, thus confirming my first remark that anything done here must be done severat times over again before it is finished. Look again at the ridiculous system of building houses here (which generally goes by fits and starts), by sinking cellars several yards below the drain in the streets. If there were no drain, then there might be an excuse, but having an enormously expensive system of sewerage, what necessity is there of creating a nuisance in every house so built. The air in such is stagnant, and every drop of water used in such must be brought to the surface by buckets; and as in some of these basements the "letrinas" are placed, how is it possible to drain these? They will produce an odor quite the reverse of Agua Florida and be a further cause of the preparation of typhoid fever etc.

Yours etc.

Railway Items.

Dr Araoz has asked Government to name Mr Richard Napp honorary member of the N. R. Board. It is expected that Mr Napp will take up the subject of Argentine Railways with the same success with which he has written about immigration and other matters of interest.

The special corresdondent of the Pall-Times gives the following interesting railway particulars:—

9 de Julio and San Rafael Railway—This concession, granted to Artayeta Castex, is for a railway from 9 de Julio, in the province of Buenos Aires, to San Rafael in the province of Mendoza, and will pass through the western portion of the province of Buenos Aires, a portion of the territory of La Pampa, the extreme south-west part of Cordoba, and the southern portion of San Luis and Mendoza, terminating at the town of San Rafael, in the last-mentioned province. It would intersect at the boundary part of San Luis and Cordoba the railway now in construction by John J Meiggs, Son and Co. between Bahia Blanca, General Acha, and Villa Mercedes, but with this exception would have no competitor after it had passed the limits of the province of Buenos Aires. The country through which the railway would pass after leaving the Metropolitan Province is sparsely populated, suffers somewhat from deficient rainfall in ordinary seasons, and at the present time contains no cultivated land, and but a comparatively speaking small number of cattle. San Rafael, a hundred and eighty miles south of Mendoza, the objective point of the railway, is upon the banks of the River Diamantina, which rises in the Andean volcano of Maipo, and loses itself in the Pampas. It is a military frontier post, but has no commercial importance. The gauge of the proposed railway is to be 5 feet 6 inches, and the Government have given a guarantee of five per cent for twenty years upon a cost per kilometre of 23,000 dollars gold, all the land on the route, which may be the property of the Government, to be given free.

"San Juan to Chumbicha—This concession granted to Quiroga, is for a line starting from the city of San Juan, the present terminus of the Great Western Railway, passing by La Rioja and terminating at Chumbicha in Catamarca, which is already connected with Buenos Ayres by the Recreo branch of the Central Norte. The gauge is 5 ft. 6 in. and there is a gaurantee of 5 per cent. for twenty years on an expenditure of $30,500 gold per kilometre. Rioja is connected with Buenos Ayres by the Dean Funes extension of the Central Norte. The line will pass through some excellent land, near the so-called Fertile Valley, but the greater portion is of inferior quality, and much is useless, unless it be found to contain mineral wealth, about the existence of which there are strong indications.

"Chilecito to Famantina—This concession, given to P. Prudhomme, is for a railway on the Lartigue system from Chilecito in the Province of La Rioja to the mining district of La Mejicana del Mineral de Famantina in the mountains, a distance as the crow flies of about 10 miles. This district produces copper with an admixture of silver and gold, and the principal mine is said to be 16,500 feet above the level of the sea. The length of the line is not to exceed 55 kilom., and there is a guarantee of 5 per cent for 20 years upon a cost not exceeding $26,500 gold per kilom."

Some complaints by Inspector Llambi about the Cañada de Gomez Extension were received yesterday at the National Railway Board. The complaints, however, are of a trivial nature. As soon as everything is in full swing, there will, we trust, be no ground for complaint.

Mr Schneiderwind, inspector-general, has been named vice-President of the Engineers' Department.

Government yesterday approved the plans of Fisherton Station kil 9 65. Central Argentine Railway, and those of the first 6 kilometres of the 9 de Julio and San Rafael Railway.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week opened yesterday deeply beautifully miserably blue, with a fresh spring in the heel of the gold premium and stupendous rumours flying about like autumn leaves. Telegrams from Cordoba say that President Juarez will be here on Saturday and that a shuffling of the Cabinet will then take place.

At the Fronton Nacional on Sunday, an enormous crowd attended to see Irun and Portal polish off Elicegui and the Manco. It reminded one of old times, before the crisis was even dreamt of, to see so much enthusiasm in the crowd and so much money changing hands, but the game was a poor one. The Manco tried a hand-to-hand fight with Portal and Irun, as by his tactics he left his partner out in the cold; he found, however, to his cost, that, single-handed, he was no match for the other two, as they left him in 33, say seventeen aces to the bad. In the first match Garmendia and Recondo had a walk-over against Osoro and Brau menor.

There was an enormous congregation in the Cathedral on Sunday to hear Father Jordan preach. With all his accustomed fire and eloquence the Revd. orator lashed the great vice of Argentine society of the day—sinful extravagance of living, and the vice and demoralization it leads to: he blamed the wealthy for the bad example they give, which has corrupted the whole social body. The sermon made a profound impression on all who heard it.

Our esteemed colleague M. Leon Walls, editor of the Courrier de la Plata, has we perceive, turned his attention to oyster-growing. The business must be as good as editing a paper with gold at par, and we hope Tuyu oysters will become as famous as Tuyu corned beef. The company, of which M. Walls is the chairman, has been started with a modest capital of, 100,000 dollars. Operations to be begun in Tuyu.

One of the largest shops in the city, which formerly did a business of 2,000 dol, a day over the counter, took in for the whole of last month 1800 dols.; and the landlord raised the rent from 800 to 1,200 dols. A change is coming for house owners. Houses and rooms are to be let by hundreds, yet rents have not fallen. They must fall soon, and very soon.

In our advertisements columns will be seen a notice of great importance to public and semi-public establishments, such as tramways, ball-alleys, race course companies, sport or "bucket" shops, shooting galleries, telegraph and telephone companies and many others "ejusdem generis."

The first letter on our E. T. yesterday was from an indignant Italian subscriber, giving it to us "hot" for having questioned the taste of the Prince of Naples in introducing coloured shirts for evening dress. We have always hitherto held the same impression as to the young Prince's character as our correspondent, viz, that he was a haughty, serious young fellow, fond of reading etc. and not likely to care much about what he had on his back; but as regards his "penchant" for "family life" we have read very different versions and think none the worse of him for them. Admiration of the fair sex is a characteristic of his House. As well as we remember our universal history, most of the great men of the world have had the same manly virtue. The London papers we have seen attribute, some of them, the new fashion to "a Prince of the House of Savoy" and others say, that the Prince of Naples is referred to. As regards our using unparliamentary language "to designate the representatives of the fashionable world in the City of the Caesars," we beg to say that it was not our intention to refer exclusively to Rome. Titled noodles and silly sons of trade-enriched citizens are, unfortunately common to every country in Europe, and their ambition to be Counts D'Orsay and Beaux Brummel lacks even the small modicum of brains that made the vain worthies in question and some others of their kidney tolerable in days gone by. A male leader of fashion, even be he a King or Prince, is quite too much of a ridiculous anomaly at the present day.

The Revd. Dr. James Smith, A.M., will preach on Sunday week, 23rd, at the residence of Mr. Purves, San Vicente.

The doings at the Operai Italiani saloons on Sunday in honour of the memory of the late Duke of Aosta were grand and nice to the last degree but, unfortunately, the parts of the two H's—Hamlet and Horatio—had to be left out, as neither Prince Amadeo nor the Italian Minister was present, although over 2000 ladies and gentlemen had packed themselves in the saloons to meet them.

Times are quite too atrociously hard for us even to dream of doing as an anonymous subscriber suggests, viz., that we should supply our own special remedy—Dry Champagne—to all our subscribers suffering from influenza; and we cannot refrain from remarking that it would be more in accord with precedent and the eternal fitness of things if our sympathising subscribers were to reverse the process and supply us with a little D.C.; as every man on our staff has had the influenza for the last six weeks and is unable to shake it off, owing tothe crisis precluding resort to the infallible remedy in question.

The sale of La Plata Port lands on Sunday was quite as great a failure as that attempted of the Madero Port sites. Everybody expected this result. The idea of buying anything whatever—even a new pair of boots—in the present crisis is quite ridiculous.

We were favored yesterday with a neat pamphlet dealing with the merits of "Asfalto Trinidad de Barber," and will hand it to our scientific editor for review when he recovers from the irrepressible influenza. Our fighting editor volunteered to do the job, but we fear he would botch it.

The Rosario Reporter says:—"At a meeting of the Literary Society on Friday evening Mr. A. H. Beckwith read a paper on the "History of the Steam Engine." Though necessarily somewhat short, it was listened to with much attention, a vote of thanks being unanimously passed at the conclusion."

It was almost worth while getting up the crisis since it brought forth "Anibal Latino's" most humorous article on the subject in Sunday's Nacion. It would make even the most sedate mute at a funeral roar laughing.

The second section of the enlarged premises of the Ciudad de Londres is now open, and we advise our lady readers to go and see it. We doubt if London or Paris can show anything to surpass it in taste and general get-up. The show of gorgeous dresses and bonnets of the latest fashions is something quite bewildering, and quite too much for masculine comprehension. This grand new section is in the upper storey, and fair customers are whisked up to it in a most comfortable "lift."

There was a kind of amateur bull-fight in the Riestra quinta in Calle Victoria on Sunday, and a fashionable company assembled to witness it. It is said five "toritos" were killed.

The news from San Nicolas is that the import of foreign goods there has so much fallen off that the Custom House there might as well be closed. Unpleasant sign of the times this.

New ailments are the order of the day. The Peruvians have got the latest. It is called "Verrugas" fever, as it first broke out at the railway works at that place. We suspect it is simply virulent marsh fever. A good many old things are naturally quite new to Peruvian doctors.

One of our Montevidean colleagues, La Razon, opposes President Herrera on the very irrational ground of his having changed his private residence from the old town to the new! This is the funniest reason for political opposition that we have yet heard of. Besides, great allowance must be made for the new President, as he is about to get married.

The R. P. Times of Montevideo reports the tip-top health of that city as follows in its issue of Saturday last:—"All the medical men in town were looking dreadfully dull yesterday. Up to one o'clock not a single death had been registered in the city. Not a patient seemed inclined to give way even to the evils of influenza. Montevideo is really too utterly healthy."

Till recently ozokerite, or mineral wax, was not known to exist anywhere out of Moldavia and Galicia. Three years ago, however, a deposit was discovered in the territory of Utah, about a hundred and fifteen miles east of Salt Lake City. The mine covers at least a hundred and fifty acres, and about a thousand tons can be taken from it in a year.

The difference between having a tooth properly drawn by a professional dentist, and having it knocked out miscellaneously by a fall upon a pavement, is only a slight verbal distinction after all—one is dental and the other is accidental.

The telegrams published yesterday morning gush joyfully over the success of the Battle of Flowers at Montevideo on Sunday. The Corso extended from the Argentine Legation along the Agraciada Road to Paso Molino Bridge. Four hundred and fifty carriages full of lovely women took part in the flowery fray, under gas lit arches and thousands of Chinese lanterns. It was a fairy scene and knocked even the best of past Carnivals into the shade. Many of the quintas along the road were profusely illuminated. The crowd of onlookers was enormous.

The Censor mentions a certain worthy Spaniard named "Don Juan", who, in a "corralon" at the corner of Belgrano and Pichincha keeps a "tienda" where the finest silks and satins and laces and ladies' frippery of all kinds can be had for half the price charged in the centre of town. "Don Juan" "runs" the place by himself, and has not even one assistant. The shop is open from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m., and from 6 to 9 p.m. Strings of carriages are always at the door. This new shop will be a revelation for many of our fair readers.

Dr. Holmberg, Director of the Zoo, has invited the Scientific Society to go out there on Sunday next and have a look at all the new birds and animals Lord Mayor Seeber bought when in Europe. They are all fine. It is not every South American Lord Mayor who is such a good judge of elephants, Polar bears and rhinoceri.

How they can see.—Mrs. Gazzam: "I can't understand how robbers see to go through a house at night." Gazzam: "With their burglarize, of course."

"The rain is really too disagreeable to venture out in, Mr. Boggs; remain and take tea with us, quite "en famille," won't you?" "Thanks, but it isn't so bad as that."

We received a long letter yesterday from a Cordoba "Teetotaller" in reference to a railway passenger who hadn't paid his fare, Cordoba money, old issue, new issue, a cup of coffee (?), an arrest, and $46 theft. We, of course, believe our correspondent when he declares "I never took a drink in my life, not even a 'choppe' or wine at my meals"; but we respectfully submit that this extreme abstemiousness since he was a baby makes him the worst possible judge in the case of drunkenness which he has submitted to us, and which we confess our inability to understand he puts it.

Mr. Hector Quesada's numerous friends are preparing a grand reception for him on his return from Europe.

The Committee of the Rural Society have very properly kicked out of doors the proposal to have a theatre at their Exhibition next month. It would have been quite out of place, and would not have paid a cent.

Two Basques ran a long foot race on Sunday in the Belgrano Hippodrome in presence of some hundreds of spectators. It was not an even match, as one of them had to give up before half the race was run, and the other covered the ground at a rattling pace without showing any signs of fatigue.

The death of Colonel Michemberg, Inspector General of Buenos Ayres militia, was announced yesterday.

You never hear the bee complain,
Nor hear it weep and wail;
But if it wish it can unfold
A very painful tail.

The camp news yesterday was dull, although sedate Mercedes seems to be a little excited about that lively subject street-paving. Venerable Chascomus is thinking of levelling and drainage, which proves that the bitter experience of the capital of the republic in those respects has been thrown away on camp towns. Tramway and paving are the great questions of the day in Pergamino.

A good "mot" of the late Cardinal Donnet, Archbishop of Bordeaux, is related in a brief sketch of the Cardinal in the Nouvelle Revue:—"The worthy prelate was talking at an evening party to a lady outrageously "décolletée", and with a temper as short as her "corsage", when someone trod upon her train. "Fichu maladroit!" exclaimed the lady. "Ah, madame,' said his Eminence, "that 'fichu' would be better on your shoulders than on your lips."

The Lord Mayor has sent a long "Message" to the City Commissioners in reference to changing the names of the city streets. We have a radical objection to this never-ending tampering with the names of the streets; but it is a cheap and harmless amusement when compared with attempts to raise new loans and lay out new parks, new Boulevards, etc. when there is not a brass cent in the city cash box.

Paper boots are becoming rapidly fashionable amongst the ladies of New York. They are very light and pleasant to the feet, resist mud and water better, and are half the price of the leather article. No doubt this new fashion will soon make its appearance here.

An unpleasant rumour about a big shortage in the accounts of the defunct City Improvement Commission is referred to by a morning colleague.

The street-sweepers have respectfully told the Lord Mayor that they have made up their minds to strike if they are not paid $45 a month in future instead of $40, as they find it quite impossible to attend the theatres regularly on the latter amount.

Carpet Dealer: "Yes, madame, that is a fine stair-carpet, and very durable."—Woman: "Will it last well?"—Carpet Dealer: "Madame, fourteen years ago I sold a piece of that carpet to a lady, and she used it thirteen years."—Woman: "Then did she throw it away?"—Carpet Dealer: "No, madame; I should say not. For the last year her eldest son has worn it, made up as an overcoat."

Probably no man so fully realizes the empty hollowness of all sublunary and terrestrial things as the one who ladles a teaspoonful of freshly grated horse-radish into his mouth under the impression that it is vanilla ice-cream.

DEPARTURE OF FATHER GAUGHREN.

Having successfully concluded the special mission for which he came to this country, at the recommendation of Cardinal Manning, this reverend gentleman starts for Montevideo this evening per river steamer, there to await the Italian ocean liner which is to take him to Europe. Few men, in any walk of life, have made so many friends and acquaintances during such a short stay amongst us, and the fact that more than one of those who subscribed most generously for his good work were of a contrary religious persuasion speaks eloquently of that truly Christian spirit which prevails here much more than in Europe. Nor is there any other country where there is less of that unfair preponderance of capital over labour, commonly called "white slavery," and to which the Cork Examiner and Freeman's Journal referred in articles last month touching our treatment of immigrants. It is difficult to suppose that some of the most respectable journals in the old country would wantonly calumniate us, and yet their columns have been filled from time to time with the most groundless and malicious lies. Let but two thousand poor Argentines land in Dublin or London on a single day and we shall see how many ladies or gentlemen will come forward to feed and clothe them.

Why there is no other city in the world where such a splendid philanthropic effort could be made to save the people from the inevitable result of their own folly. That trouble and misfortune befel some is not to be wondered at, since they refuse to be guided by the advice of old residents. Besides, as Father Gaughren very well knows, the colony at Naposta was especially formed to save the people from the mil series which are the lot of most foreigners when arriving penniless on a foreign shore. How honestly Mr. Gartland and his partners have tried under every disadvantage to work out this great humane experiment is not for us to say, neither do we ask Father Gaughren to be the travelling apostle of this good work here or elsewhere; but we do demand and expect that he will see that fair play be done to the Argentine nation.

To our mind there is no finer field for immigrants the whole world over than this country offers, crisis or no crisis; but fortunes cannot be made here in a moment, and those who are not prepared to work and suffer for a time had better remain at home. In bidding farewell to Father Gaughren we hope that he will not forget the many warm friends he leaves behind him, and that a kind word (which costs nothing) will never be wanting for that fair land under the Southern cross, where our countrymen have prospered to an extraordinary degree, where their native sons have risen to the highest honours in this state, and where there is a generous welcome awaiting as many more of Ireland's scattered sons and daughters as may desire to come and settle amongst us.

DECKER'S
ABSOLUTELY PURE
This mild, mellow and delicious Whiskey is distilled from the finest growth of carefully selected Rye grain and Barley malt. It is a marvel of wholesomeness, excellence and evenness of quality, unequalled by any Whiskey in the market. It is bottled in bond for export only, is entirely free from fusil oil, possesses a natural flavor and fine tonic properties, suited exactly for the use of invalids and weak and sickly persons. It is cooling, refreshing and strengthening so pure, smooth and ripe, and agreeable to the palate as to invite the attention of connoisseurs.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's CHLORODYNE.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE
Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhoea and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years, In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.
Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr J Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to,—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.
Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

Matters reached the acme of blackness at the second hour when gold shot up another five points and stocks gave way to the last planks that sheltered them from the waste paper stage. National Bank shares got a quotation at 138, but there are no buyers at this rate. Constructors tumbled to 28.50, Obligations to 3.80 and Catalinas to 29.50, while the P Cedulas crowned the falling pyramid by dropping to 54. The feeling on 'Change was one of the most profound anxiety, as the times are ominous, and nobody knows what the morrow may bring forth, and one thing is certain, if nothing be done by the Government, the 300 boundary will soon be marked up on the Bolsa black board.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

It is patent from these monthly statements, which keep the market posted as to the movement of the banks of the Interior, that the latter are in a state bordering upon insolvency, and would in any other country be forced to liquidate. As a culminating feature it is notable that instead of reflecting the improvement that might be looked for in such times as the present, they are getting more hopelessly sunk in the quicksands every day.

The auction of the La Plata port lands held yesterday proved almost as wholesale a fiasco as that of the Madero Port lands a week ago. There was an enormous attendance, calculated at some 400 persons, but it was evident from the start that the results would be of the poorest, as there was only a weak attempt at bidding made for a few select lots. Block A was first up, but no bid over upset price of 12.70 the square metre could be elicited. Block D D was then put up with same upset price, Mr. Asneiro taking lots 1 and 2 at 15 dollars, Dr. Fonronge lot 3 at 19 dollars, and Mr. Del Carril lot 4, also at 19 dollars. Block F was then taken up, lots 1, 2 and 3 being knocked down to Mr D. Ferro at 13 20 m/n, and 4, 5 and 6 to Mr. A. Stuart at 12.80 m|n. In Block E only three lots, 1, 2 and 3, could be sold, Mr. B. Masine catching the auctioneer's eye at 12.90 m|n, 20 cents more than the upset price. Mr. J. Garcia took lots 1, 2 and 3 of block C.C. at 13 dollars, which closed the proceedings, as the auctioneers, in view of the weakness of the bidding, withdrew the remaining lots. Summing up, the results give the sale of 17,485 meters of the 327,040 metres offered, for 228,821 dollars, giving an average of 12.82 per metre. The lands are mortgaged to the bank for 226,640 m|n

In spite of crisis and paralyzation of business, Messrs. Collet and Llambi had a large attendance at their auction yesterday, succeeding also in selling all that they offered, a no mean feat in these hard times. Twelve thousand yards at Martinez Station fetched from 65 to 80 cents per square yard, and two lots in San Isidro, on the "barranca," at 3.10 to 3 80 m|n; buyer Mr. Galup. A property situated in Calle Tucuman 2176, measuring 10x42½ yards, changed hands for 22,000 dols., buyer Mr. J. Marchillo.

Messrs. Houlder Brothers announce the arrival yesterday in Montevideo of their steamship Zarate, which brings 400 tons of cargo for Montevideo, 1400 tons for Buenos Aires, 60 tons for Rosario and 430 tons for Campana.

Matters in the colonies are reported much improved, as it is said that the exporters have already paid from seven to eight millions for cereals, which will relieve the farmers from all pressing demands. When the whole available harvest has been paid for the improvement will be more pronounced, as not a third part has yet been disposed of. Taking everything into consideration, grain growers have had a good year.

We take the following from our Montevidean exchanges:—

"The directorate of the recently established Bolsa Bank has resolved to propose the liquidation of the bank to the shareholders, for which purpose an extraordinary general meeting is called for the 21st inst. at 3 p.m.

"Sociedad Cooperativa de Panaderia is now collecting the third quota on its shares.

"Sr. Aguirre sold from his saladero yesterday 2000 salted ox hides, mostly under salt, at 6.50 heavy on board. Another large sale is rumoured at same figure.

"The Venus brought from Buenos Aires yesterday $1000 to B. Tejada, and the Olimpo from Uruguay $1550 for D. Basso. The Eolo arrived to-day with 10,000 dols. from Buenos Aires.

"The following were the killings in the up river saladeros from February 15th to 28th:—

Salto	8,000
Guaviyu	7,000
Paysandu	20,000
Arjento	4,500

"Sr. Elias Colombino has been duly inscribed as public valuer."

"The traffic steamers 'Solis' and 'Plata' have gone into Maua dock for repairs.

"The technical inspectors have approved the repairs recently made in the machinery of the National gunboat General Artigas.

"The work of soundings for the building of new Customs deposits is being continued as fast as the variable weather will permit.

"From Mr. J. Coles circular, dated Paysandu, Feb. 28, we take the following:—Vessels despatched from Feb. 13: Bellucia (s) from Fray Bentos with 2000 hides for Hamburg, by Liebigs Co. H. Becker from Arroyo Negro with 3610 pipes tallow for Garston by Arning Brauss and Co.—Vessels loading: Liana, Hattie G. Dixon, S. B. ON 'CHANGE.

PRICE OF GOLD TO-DAY.

First Ring............	262.00
Second Ring..........	265.00

Tuesday, March 11th.

The Bolsa this morning, when gold touched 273, shook to its very centre. Everyone asked where is all this going to stop, and just before the market turned and prices weakened, the prevailing impression in the hall was that gold is bound for 300. Never before do we recollect this market in a position like the present; not even in the hardest times of the crisis of 1876 were things as they are now, and the great difficulty is to see the way out of the present mess. The general opinion is that a complete change of Government is the only possible remedy, and many are astonished that the public men at the head of affairs do not see things in the same light and at once make room for others to take the direction of affairs. That we are on the eve of a tremendous storm is the general opinion of the market. The question is, when will it come?

There was a "sauve qui-peut" feeling at the first hour as gold opened at 270 stiff and hard. Consternation was depicted on every countenance, and the sounding of the last trump could scarcely create a more unpleasant impression than this jump of five points in the premium from night to morning. Eventually the very "bulls" themselves came to the assistance of the market; large sales "casaring" were made both for cash and end of month, and this brought the quotation steadily down to 262 for cash, 263 for Saturday, and 267 for end of month, at which it closed. Up to the close, however, the market stood aghast at such awful fluctuations; the shaky state of affairs was revealed in all its nakedness in this bobbing up and down of the premium, oscillations unprecedented in the history of the gold speculation. Stocks shewed no improvement, beyond a painful effort to keep the rates with even a shew of steadiness. It is easy to see that there is a hankering amongst dealers to put their fingers in the fire by taking up Constructors and Catalinas at their present low prices, but they see so many sellers offering that they are afraid to burn their fingers. Prov. Cedulas came down with a crash; K to 61, N and O to 54, and P to 53.50, although the latter improved at the close to 54 50. Taking matters all round, the prospects are about as black as they could well be painted.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

Messrs. Trebino and Co., coal merchants and brokers, announce a stiff advance in Cardiff coal within the past three weeks, which they ascribe to rumoured strikes of miners in England, rise in freights, and few clearances of cargo for the River Plate. A leading firm has taken up a large stock, some 30,000 tons, at from 10 to 13 dollars the ton, part in the Riachuelo and part to arrive, Messrs. Trebino having been the brokers in the business. The price of coal in England has risen from 13s. to 17s., prices here having advanced from 28 to 40 dols., principally due to the fluctuation of the gold premium. With regard to Newcastle and Glasgow coal, several lots are reported sold at from 11 to 13 dollars gold.

All the exporters in this market are signing a petition to the Camara de Comercio with a view to getting the latter to procure from the Provincial Government the immediate inauguration of the Central Market. The immense losses caused by the want of rolling-stock on the railways are pointed out, as also the insufficiency of the present markets to store the grain. The new market will relieve all this strain by providing for the immediate unloading of the waggons and storage of the grain, which will thus enable the waggons to do double the work they do at present.

Another strike was reported to-day, nearly all the hands at Mr. Prat's well-known establishment having gone out for an increase of wages. If there is one establishment more necessary than another in these hard times it is this clothes-cleaning factory, and its temporary disappearance would be almost as crowning a loss now as the shutting up of the Monte Pio. The whole city depends upon Mr. Prat at the present moment.

The balance-sheet of the Servicio Mensajero de la Capital was handed round to-day, and shews that in spite of the crisis this concern is doing well and increasing its business. The expenditure was necessarily heavy, eating up 227,852 dollars of the 250,000 dollars capital, so that the dividend is this year a low one, though fairly satisfactory, being over 6 o/o. The company will have few expenses in the current year, and as its business is growing, the shareholders should get a handsome return.

The Rio News of March 3rd contains the obituary of the clearing-house, which closed its doors after a brief five months' existence. When it came into existence the period was marked as one of wild speculation; banks springing up like mushrooms and everything booming; but from the very first moment the experiment may be considered to have been a failure. The state of affairs here has been similar; mushroom banks and boom have not faded from memory, whilst the idea of starting a clearing-house has been mooted and carefully studied. A leaf may be taken from the unfortunate experience of the Rio News, which has become convinced that all that is required is a capable accountant, an entry-book, a stock of exchange slips and a moderate amount of common sense.

Relative to the Government auction at La Plata on Sunday last, it is only fair to the public and to the La Plata port to state two facts not widely known to the general public, viz.:—1st. That the lands offered for sale are situated on the island of Santiago, and entirely without communication with the mainland, where the "muelles" and "depositos" and Government docks are located. 2nd. That the greater part of the island of Santiago at high tide becomes a swamp, and, in consequence, a great deal of earthworks must be constructed before the land can be utilized for building purposes.

The Houlder line s.s. Zarate will come from the Mount to-morrow (Wednesday).

The s.s. Bishopgate will be up to-morrow with 2,400 tons cargo.
